A TRADITIONAL SEASIDE RESORT

MABLETHORPE

Situated on the “drier side the country”, Mablethorpe flourished as a traditional seaside resort following the establishment of the ‘Louth and East Coast’ railway line. This vital transport system, opened in 1877, brought an influx of visitors and investors to the resort from the East Midlands and North West of the country.

The Parish is noted in the Domesday Book with the production of salt being the prime industry for the northern area of Mablethorpe.

Throughout the centuries the area has endured several periods of unrest, including the loss of a third of the population to the Black Death in 1349, and severe coastal and property damage in the floods of 1953.

Population figures range from a mere 40 adults in 1115; rising to 157 in 1603 and an estimated 261 in 1841, compared with approximately 12,500 today.

The Town was granted Market Rights by King Henry III in 1253; the charter gave the lord of the manor, David de Monte Alto, sole rights to hold a weekly market in the Town.

The Town Council operates the weekly seasonal Thursday market and this popular attraction boasts over 35 stalls selling a wide variety of products and is well worth a visit. The market promotes the national ‘Real Deal’ charter, giving shoppers peace of mind, safe in the knowledge that no counterfeit or illegal goods are offered for sale by any trader. There are also other speciality markets through the year; look out for the popular Continental Market at Easter and during the Summer season.

Despite the closure of the railway in 1970, visitors and tourists continue to flock to this popular seaside resort, virtually doubling the population of Mablethorpe during the peak holiday season.

Mablethorpe continues to maintain its superb reputation as a family resort, with the seafront having been designed with families and children in mind and boasting a blue flag award winning beach, traditional donkey rides and its popular funfair. For the grown-ups there are colourful gardens to visit in nearby Queen’s Park, with its bowling greens and boating lake, and, of course, there is an abundance of pubs, clubs and restaurants to cater for every need and budget.

For the sporting visitor there are a number of clubs in the area, from tennis to football and badminton along with horse riding stables and fishing lakes nearby. The Station Leisure and Learning Centre, located on the High Street, reopened in 2024 with new state-of-the-art fitness equipment, a four-lane swimming pool, and MagnaTAG, an activity game and obstacle arena designed to test strategy, speed, agility, awareness and bravery. There is also an array of multi-use meeting and hospitality spaces, and, most importantly, the Whistle Stop Bistro, café and coffee shop!

Moving away from the beach into the centre of town, shoppers and bargain hunters can browse the numerous shops offering plenty of souvenirs.

The Seal Sanctuary at the North End of Mablethorpe gives an insight into the life of the mammals of the sea, with birds and many other animals, including its meerkat enclosure.

Evening and night-time entertainment abound, from the local cinema to the bustling night clubs and entertainment venues to the many pubs in town offering live music and bands. July sees the annual "Summer Illuminations" event, with traditional seaside entertainment, Continental street market, and concluding with an impressive fireworks display. And, not forgetting the Mablethorpe Carnival; a weekend of fun at the end of September with music and entertainment throughout the town!

During the off-peak weekends of the autumn and winter months, the exhilarating sport of motorcycle sand racing takes place, along with the annual Christmas market and Winter Illuminations.

All in all, there is something for everyone, summer and winter, resident and visitor, making Mablethorpe the place to be.

Previously known as Sutton in the Marsh, Sutton on Sea offers a more tranquil environment to the bustling atmosphere of Mablethorpe.

With an estimated population of 100 in 1287, the area provided predominantly farming and fishing. Before the branch line connected Sutton to the main railway, it had its own steam tram running to Alford, which ran from a terminus (now the Bacchus Hotel). Talk of a harbour at that time brought much excitement and the Sea View Freehold Land Society was formed to develop the area, resulting in the Park Road and Grove Road development.

Today the area retains its peacefulness without amusement arcades or funfairs, with a friendly and informal welcome extended to visitors ensuring that this pretty village wins the hearts of visitors, year after year.

This gives the town's residents and visitors time to savour the quiet sandy beaches, discover traditional shops and the opportunity to visit the tranquil pleasure gardens.

Development of the new Seaview Colonnade, a cutting edge pavilion incorporating a café, restaurant, multipurpose exhibition space and Changing Places facilities is due to open Summer 2025. New beach huts and landscaping will be an exciting new addition to the promenade.

Nature lovers can visit the Town Council's Acre Gap Conservation Area or walk along Branch Line Walk inland to the small village of Hannah.

The village is a hive of activity and boasts the annual Carnival in July, full of colour, sound, laughter and traditional family fun. In December the annual traditional Christmas market and carol service brings the whole community together and ensures Sutton on Sea retains its own individual identity.

TRUSTHORPE

Nestling between Mablethorpe and Sutton on Sea is Trusthorpe, the 'traditional' village element of the parish. Crop fields and grazing livestock keep the agricultural spirit alive whilst maintaining the distinctiveness of the area. Trusthorpe Village Hall is actively used by local groups in the area and an annual pantomime has been staged here for over 72 years.

Dwellings nestle amongst caravan sites to the east and fields and countryside to the west, giving this area too its own distinct character.

The population was around 286 in 1842, with most residents employed in agriculture and fishing; however, tales of smuggling and shipwrecks among its ghosts make for an interesting history! Time was when, at very low tide, an old forest could be seen off Trusthorpe beach, a relic from the global warming of the day when the sea claimed the land!

MABLETHORPE LIFEBOAT STATION

A lifeboat station was established in Mablethorpe in 1883, replacing an outdated station at the nearby village of Theddlethorpe. The station was publicly inaugurated on the 4th June 1883, and a crowd of around 10,000 attended the opening ceremony. However the location presented access and launching issues for the crew and a replacement station, now known as “The Boatshed” was built in 1900 on Victoria Road.

The town’s first lifeboat, ‘the Heywood’ (Lifeboat no. 275) was built in 1882 and commissioned in 1883. During her years of service she was launched on 24 occasions and saved 13 lives. It took 12 horses to launch the lifeboat and the 10 man crew would be able to achieve approximately 3½ horse power in heavy seas.

During the Great War, the lifeboat station was temporarily closed as the crew members were away fighting for King and Country. The station never fully re-opened and the last lifeboat, the ‘John Rowson Linguard’ was withdrawn in 1920.

In 1965, a lifeboat station was re-established as an inshore station and the coastline rescue was serviced by a D class lifeboat. The existing foreshore station was built in 2001 and houses an Atlantic 75 and a D class inshore lifeboat. For more information about the station why not visit the station to view the boat and browse the well-stocked gift shop or view the website at

BEACH HUTS

ACRE GAP

Acre Gap lies between Church Lane and Sea Lane, Sandilands, and is the area where the sea undermined and breached the sea defences in 1953; it can be found by walking south along the promenade from Church Lane pullover where stunning views of the site can be seen from this vantage point. A number of footpaths cross the Acre Gap site, making it a favourite dog walking place and giving walkers the opportunity to discover new plants and identify the wildlife and flowers.

In 2004 Mablethorpe & Sutton Town Council acquired the land to establish a wildlife and conservation area. A group of volunteers from the local Women's Institute joined a working group of the Town Council and trees and shrubs were planted with the help of friends and members of the Meridale Scout group.

Yellow rattle to inhibit strong grasses was introduced and an attempt has been made to introduce marsh orchids that grow on other marshy areas along the coast.

There are a number of species of butterflies seen here in the season and bats have been recorded. Migrant birds including reed & sedge warblers and whitethroat use the area along with resident birds including reed bunting.

The creation of this large wetland conservation site has helped to promote the conservation of wildlife.

QUEEN'S PARK

Located behind the promenade, Queen's Park offers many facilities for the visitor and residents to enjoy. The car park provides a central parking location with easy access to Mablethorpe town centre, promenade and beach. The park has a boating lake and formal lawned areas and gardens. Visitors can play bowls on the outstanding bowling green, try their luck at Crazy Golf, venture out into the lake on a pleasure boat, watch the geese and ducks, or simply relax by the lake whilst sampling the fare from the cafe. The Park is signposted from the promenade and makes an ideal change of scenery from the sea and beach.

MABLETHORPE IN BLOOM

Mablethorpe boasts a blue flag award winning beach, with sand dune areas planted with native flora. All around the town each year volunteers are kept busy, planting, trimming, watering and growing in order to ensure the area looks its best throughout the holiday and visitor season and beyond.

Through the efforts of the volunteers over the years the Mablethorpe 'In Bloom' group has won many awards but has not competed in recent years due to a desperate need for new volunteers. They continue to plant up their planters around the town and tend to the gardens to give a sense of pride in our town.

Anyone interested in getting involved in the group is encouraged to contact the Town Council where you will be pointed in the right direction to get stuck in!

SUTTON ON SEA GARDENING GROUP

Sutton on Sea is a charming and attractive village with lovely sandy beaches. The colonnade is presently undergoing regeneration which is keeping the gardening group busy moving plants and working with the council to keep Sutton on Sea a place that everyone will enjoy. The hard work has paid off as we received GOLD for the Coastal Section of East Midlands In-Bloom in 2024.

The group of volunteers hold fund raising events throughout the year, which are well supported by locals and visitors. We have lots of plans for the future and for keeping Sutton on Sea a place where people enjoy living and visiting. Keeping Sutton on Sea colourful.

Gardening is fun and rewarding and open to everyone. The group also get together for social events and to join in local activities, including entry into the Sutton on Sea Carnival and The Scarecrow Trail, both of which we won in 2024. We also get together for a drink on the promenade on Christmas day and a few of the group went for a paddle on New Year's day.

We are always looking for more volunteers, not just for the planting, weeding and watering, but also the administrative and fundraising tasks that are needed to keep the group running. If you would like to come and join us please contact Pam on 07790 909997, or pop into the Meridale at 11 a.m. on a Friday.

MERIDALE YOUTH AND COMMUNITY CENTRE

SERVING THE COMMUNITY FOR 60 YEARS

Established in 1965 as a Youth Club by a group of local teenagers, Meridale has gone on to become a very important organisation in the area, with recognition from wide ranging groups, societies and local Councils.

In 2004 the Centre was honoured with the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service to the community, at the time, the only recipient in Lincolnshire.

Meridale is ideally placed in the centre of Sutton on Sea and offers first class facilities, with disabled access throughout. The main hall is ideal for large events, from receptions and parties to table top sales and coffee mornings. There are smaller meeting rooms, a fully equipped kitchen, full wi-fi internet access and more to accommodate just about every conceivable need.

A number of local groups and societies use the hall on a regular basis, from art and craft groups, fitness and dog training groups with the weekends booked out to local charities for fundraising events.

A derelict piece of land next to the hall was purchased some years ago and transformed into a much loved and well used community garden. Just steps away from the main road, the garden offers a place of peace and tranquillity for local residents and summer visitors. The garden is lovingly cared for and maintained by the local gardening group.

As in the early days, Meridale's most important and main purpose in the community is the youth group; Meridale runs two clubs a week, staffed by volunteers, to provide a safe and welcoming environment for local children from the ages of 7 to 16, which it has been doing now for 60 years.

CHURCHES

ST. MARY'S (MABLETHORPE)

The present church is thought to date from c1300 as the original was thought to have been washed away in a great storm surge of 1287.

Legend has it that the bells will be heard to ring when another flood is imminent. During bell ringing practice in the 1950's, parts of the floor began to collapse; following subsequent excavations a slabbed grave was discovered, thought to be that of George de Mablethorpe.

The bell tower contains 6 bells that in earlier times were 'toll'd' to mark the passing of a parishioner, twelve times for a man, nine times for a woman and three times for a child.

In 1978, due to subsidence, the original mediaeval arches were replaced; however some of the original stone bases remain. In the Sanctuary is a tomb of an unknown 'Earl Fitzwilliam', legend has it that he fought a duel in the 14th century, in which both parties died. Likewise there is a monument in the church at Maltby to an Earl which further supports the legend. The church seats around 200 people and Sunday Service is held at 11.00 a.m. and Thursdays at 9.30 a.m.

ST. PETER'S (TRUSTHORPE)

The original church at Trusthorpe is said to have been situated a quarter of a mile east of where it stands now, destroyed by the encroaching sea.

The mediaeval font and pillars inside the Church were saved and now stand proud inside the Victorian renovated Nave (1842) and Chancel (built 1931). The Church is constructed of locally sourced red brick and in the wall of the porch is an inverted stone, carved with a shield, cross and gothic inscription. This impressive little Church boasts beautiful stained-glass windows and its Tower dates to 1606. It has 3 Taylor-cast bells and villagers, who renovated its Balcony and Tower in 2015, started a bellringing group, 'The Trusthorpe Clangers' who ring for Sunday morning services, practice nights and for all national bell ringing days. On Remembrance Sunday they were chosen to ring alongside Lincoln Cathedral on BBC Radio. Sunday Church service starts at 9am. and Tuesday 'Book of Common Prayer' Service starts at 9.30am. The Church has many Open Days throughout the year.

ST. CLEMENT'S (SUTTON-ON-SEA)

Many years ago, a large part of the parish, including the church, was out at sea. St Clements was re-built in 1819 and again in 1860 when the chancel was enlarged and the transept added to improve the seating capacity.

Although the church is now a fairly modern structure, it is noted for its "leaning tower" containing four bells, with the oldest dating from the 15th century. The church seats up to 200 people. The regular Sunday Service is held at 10.30am. and a mid-week service is held on Wednesdays 9.30am.

OTHER AREAS TO VISIT

St Mary's Conservation Area – This tranquil green-space is situated to the west of the centre of Mablethorpe, developed following the closure of a former landfill site. Redevelopment and maintenance of the pond area remains ongoing. The area also forms part of the cycleway through and around the town. This area achieved 'Fields in Trust' status in 2014.

Trusthorpe Triangle – Trusthorpe residents completed this Community Garden Project in 2011. The garden is now maintained and administered by the 'Trusthorpe Clangers', a bell ringing group who also maintain St. Peter's Church Tower, Community Annexe and Paddock, the Trusville Boat and Treasure Chest which was rebuilt last year. They won the RHS In Bloom for best coastal village in 2022, mainly because of their range of community inclusion events and environmental work. The Bell Ringers were also chosen as the Lincolnshire practising team to ring alongside the Cathedral ringers for the WWI memorial weekend on BBC radio. The team has received three Silver Gilt awards for their hard work. The small bridge, until the autumn of 2018, had a rare sluice gate which was the only one left in Lincolnshire. It was taken out (for safety reasons) and is now placed in St. Peter's Paddock for historic purposes. The land also houses an historic bus shelter, constructed in 1953 to commemorate the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

Harris Boulevard Community Garden – This small piece of land is located off Seacroft Road, Mablethorpe, and was established in 2011. This project is a fantastic example of how community engagement can make a positive difference and the garden boasts many 'In Bloom' Awards.

Railway Walk and Turntable Area – Situated between Mablethorpe High Street (off Station Road) and the Mablethorpe Industrial Estate, Railway Walk is a pleasant green walk following the line of the old railway. Located on the site of the former Railway Turntable, the area has been turned into a small conservation area, with a monument to its former use in the form of a carved engine, interspersed with wildlife feeding areas and associated planting.

Branch Line Walk – This pleasant area follows the line of the old railway from Crabtree Lane, Sutton on Sea to the nearby village of Hannah.

The footpath created along the walk is an excellent use of the former railway line and promotes the conservation of wildlife, plants, birds and insects. The trees, grasses and plants provide shelter to a variety of birds, insects, and small creatures, enhancing the experience for walkers in the area.

Diana Memorial Garden – This small garden was established in 2010 as a memorial tribute area to Diana, Princess of Wales; situated off Trusthorpe Road, the garden gives a pleasant roadside resting place to sit and relax and is popular with cyclists and is well maintained by the Sutton on Sea Gardening Group.

Cycleway – Beginning in St Mary's Conservation Area, the cycleway leads eastwards through to Stanley Avenue, along Mablethorpe High Street to Queen's Park, up onto the pullover and through to Huttoft Car Terrace. (Please Note – care is needed through the sand areas, and right of way must be given to pedestrians on the promenade).

Skatepark – The Skatepark was constructed in early 2008 by East Lindsey District Council and updated in 2016 following fundraising activities by local resident Mrs Margaret Codling. This well-used amenity continues to be a hit with the younger population and visitors alike, with superb tricks and stunts regularly demonstrated.

In 2013, a memorial stone was installed in this area to commemorate the 60th Anniversary of the floods, in dedication to those affected by the tragic events on 31st January 1953.
